

What Does It Take To Be A Queen?

Our mission is to make a positive difference in the LGBTQ community. As Queens of Eta Epsilon Gamma Sorority Inc. we vow to uplift our brothers to accomplish goals, dispel negative stereotypes, and mend fences among ourselves and the community. We vow to advocate for equal rights, social justice, and inclusion for the entire LGBTQ community.

The benefits of being a member of include sisterhood, knowledge, networking, and a greater sense of pride through community service. As the sorority continues to reach its goals, we are establishing bonds among successful, focused, and community minded individuals. By creating an organization whose members are diverse, productive members of society, Eta Epsilon Gamma Sorority Inc. will help to bring lesbian and bisexual cis-women into the forefront of the LGBTQ community. Our goal is to attract potentials with a desire for community service while still exceeding personal and professional goals.

The potential member of Eta Epsilon Gamma Sorority Inc. must complete a 12 week program (subject to change, if necessary, per executive committee vote) which focuses on developing mature and respectable members, with community service, bonding and sisterhood being the major focuses of this program. This important bond will not only be among your line brothers and sisters, but also with the existing members as well. Success in this program requires 100% effort. Give all you have into this program and you will be able to set your place in the history of Eta Epsilon Gamma Sorority Inc.

We are here to help develop you into a leader and a productive member of society. You will not only learn information regarding our history but also world history and social issues that affect our community directly. An ETA Queen is a well rounded individual who always strives to gain knowledge about the world around her. With knowledge a Queen is now armed with the weapons and tools she needs to survive.
